Where any written or printed material is found in his possession as a consequence of the search, the matter is taken to the notice of the Chief Superintendent of Examination centre. The candidate's answer booklet shall be confiscated along with the material recovered.

The Chief Superintendent shall hold a preliminary enquiry; record the report of the Junior supervisor, the statement of the candidate in the presence of a teacher other than the Junior supervisor concerned. On sufficient grounds, the Chief Superintendent shall forthwith suspend the candidate from writing the examination and withdraw the admission ticket.

The Chief Superintendent shall thereafter obtain a statement/ undertaking of the student. The junior supervisor shall provide his/ her report. CS shall countersign both the report and the statement. The candidate shall be made to affix his/ her signature on the incriminating materials used in the malpractice. Answer scripts of all such cases are packed separately.

If the candidate refuses to give a statement, he/she should be asked to record in writing his/her refusal to give a statement. If he/she refuses to give a statement, the facts shall be noted duly witnessed by two members of the supervisory staff.

If the candidate refuses to hand over the incriminating material or destroys or runs away with the material (causes to disappear) the facts shall be noted duly witnessed by two members of the supervisory staff and the matter reported to the Chief Superintendent immediately.

In case of Misconduct/ insolent behavior (i.e. verbal or nonverbal e.g. gestures), the Supervisor or concerned authorized person shall record the facts in writing and shall report the same to the Controller of Examinations.

The answer scripts, relevant question paper(s), statement of the errant-examinee and the incriminating materials confiscated shall be packed in a cover and labeled. This packet in turn shall be placed in an outer cover along with the junior supervisor Report(s) of all such cases along with the consolidated report of the CS on cases of malpractices for the session. It is reiterated that these Answer scripts should NOT be packed with the other Answer scripts. They should be placed in a separate packet and sealed. It is the responsibility of the Centre's Chief Superintendent to ensure that the malpractice related bundle is securely dispatched to the COE with appropriate labeling.

A record of such malpractice shall be maintained at the examination centre in order to prevent such candidates from appearing in subsequent examinations by pretending to have lost the Hall ticket.

The Office of the COE shall open only the outer cover containing the reports of Post-Examination, if the examiner at the time of assessment of answer-booklet(s) suspects that there is a prime facie evidence that the examinee(s) whose answer script(s) the examiner is assessing appears to have resorted to malpractice, he/ she shall forthwith stop further evaluation and return the answer script with a report prepared by him under his/ her name and signature to the Chairman of the Board in separate confidential sealed envelope marked as “Suspected Malpractice case”. The Chairman shall forward the same to the COE along with his/ her remarks and signature. If the suspicion arises or malpractice is suspected after script is already valued, marks shall not be entered in the OMR Sheet or marks list along with other students but enter them in a separate list and hand over to the custodian who in turn shall forward the same to the COE in a sealed cover.

Procedures for dealing with suspected cheating in an examination

If an invigilator suspects a student of cheating during an examination or having access to unpermitted material, this should be reported to the senior supervisor. The student must not be challenged at this point. The Senior Invigilator should try to witness the suspected cheating. If it is the senior supervisor who has first observed the suspected cheating, he/she should ask another experienced invigilator to see if they can also witness what the student is doing.

The second junior supervisor watching the student should do so discreetly, at a distance.

Once two junior supervisor are satisfied that there appears to be a case of suspected cheating, the senior supervisor should ask the student to accompany them outside the examination venue; ideally, the second junior supervisor who viewed the alleged cheating should also accompany them. The senior supervisor should Remove everything from the student's desk, including coats, jackets and anything on the floor near the student and take it outside with them.

Once outside the senior supervisor should inform the student what has been observed by two junior supervisors and that this will be reported to the Academic Misconduct Panel. The student should be informed that it is in their best interests to co-operate and that their co-operation, or lack of it, will be reported to the Panel.

The senior supervisor should ask the student to hand over what they were observed using. If the student denies that they were using or were in possession of unpermitted material, the Senior supervisor may ask certain questions which will depend on what was observed: e.g.

- if the student was observed putting notes in their pocket, the student could be asked to empty their pockets
- if the student appeared to be looking at something written on their hand/arm, the student could be asked to show their hand/arm, which may mean asking them to roll up their sleeves
- Photographic evidence may be taken if necessary, please ensure that you gain the consent of the student before taking any photographs. A camera will be available in each main venue for this purpose

If the student refuses to answer any questions, hand over any material, or to allow a photograph to be taken of any evidence, the senior supervisor should inform the student, that the refusal will be noted as part of the report to the Academic Misconduct Panel.

At no point should a junior supervisor make physical contact with a student, or ask that they remove any clothing.

The senior supervisor should check the items removed from the student's desk to ensure that no unauthorized material is hidden there.

If the student has writing on their person, the senior supervisor should transcribe the material and ask the second supervisor to check that it has been transcribed correctly.

Any unpermitted material should be retained by the senior supervisor and the student should be informed that it will be handed to the Student Records and Examinations Team. If the student asks for the material/item back, they must go to the Student Services Centre after the examination to request this.

The senior supervisor should mark the student's examination script to show the point at which the student was spoken to about the suspected cheating. Once the interview is complete, the student can be allowed to return to the examination venue and complete the examination in the scheduled timeframe i.e. they will not be permitted any additional time because of the investigation.

If the Senior supervisor believes that the student was cheating in the examination they should complete a 'Report of Suspected Academic Misconduct' form and ask any other members of the invigilation team who witnessed the cheating to add details in the relevant sections.

If the Senior supervisor is satisfied that the student has offered a valid explanation to show that they were not cheating, he/she should inform the student that a report will be submitted to the School to confirm that the student was disturbed during the examination. The student should be allowed to return to the examination venue and complete the examination in the scheduled timeframe; they cannot be permitted any additional time because of the investigation. The senior supervisor should complete an 'Incident Sheet'.

If a senior supervisor is unsure of how to deal with an incident they should contact the Student Records and Examinations Team for advice.

A student must not be taken out of the examination venue unless two junior supervisors have clearly observed cheating. If at the end of the examination, the second junior supervisor has not been able to observe anything specific but is satisfied that the student was behaving suspiciously, e.g. spending a lot of time watching the location of the invigilators, the senior supervisor may choose to ask the student to remain behind and talk to them about what was observed.

If there is insufficient evidence to challenge a student either during, or at the end of the examination, but the Senior Invigilator believes that there was suspicious behavior, please report this to the Student Records and Examinations Team by completing an examination 'Incident Sheet'.
